

DEATHS

MRS. A. T. SWISHER, one of Marshall's excellent old ladies, died at her home on Eastwood boulevard at 5 a. m. Tuesday after a long illness of a complication of ailments, aged 71 years.

Mrs. Swisher was born in Hedgesville, West Virginia, and came to Saline with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hedges, in 1862. In 1867 she was married to the surviving husband, Adam T. Swisher, and to this union seven children survive—D. A. Swisher, of Napton; H. H. of Norton; J. F. and A. T. of Marshall; Mrs. E. F. Baker of Huron, S. D.; Mrs. Kiser of Blosser, and Miss Ada of Marshall. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. V. B. Swisher, Mrs. M. P. Tabler and Joseph Hedges of Norton.

Mrs. Swisher and her husband lived for over forty years in their cozy little home on Eastwood, during which time our city grew from a hamlet to a beautiful residence. She brought up a splendid family of children which is one of the greatest tributes to any woman today. She was a faithful and consistent member of the Presbyterian church, being one of the charter members of the Odell Ave. Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Funeral services were held at the residence Wednesday at 3 o'clock and burial in Ridge Park cemetery.

MRS. M. A. JONES RUMANS died at her home on West North Street at 2:15 p. m. Sunday, April 7, 1912, of Organic heart trouble, after a lingering illness of three months and ten days.

Deceased was born near Butler, Bates county, Mo., June 23, 1848. Her age was 63 years, nine months and 13 days.

She professed Christ and united with the Baptist church when about 15 years of age and was a faithful and devoted member until her death. Her consecrated Christian life and readiness to assist in the maintenance of the church of her choice has been a blessing. Her love for her Master was shown by her desire to bring others to Christ and her Christmas presents to her grandchildren and friends for several years past were Testaments and Bibles, which will prove a great consolation and blessing to them in later years.

Undertaker Parle Walker had charge of the remains which were taken to Hazel Grove Church Tuesday morning. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. C. Bolton, of Marshall, her former pastor, after which her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining beside her loved ones gone before.

On Sept. 23, 1865 she was married to John R. Jones who preceded her in death. To this union were born nine children, three having died in infancy.

The children who survive the mother are as follows: Mrs. Rosa Oster, Granville, N. Dak.; Mrs. Kate Gardner Sidney, Mont.; Richard of Alberta, Can.; Calvin, of Kansas City and Charlie and Frank of near Marshall.

We extend sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

MRS. FRANCES HUBBARD, one of the old and respected ladies of the community, died at her home in Slater, Friday, April 13th. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. T. Pritchett, were held at the residence Saturday afternoon and her remains interred at the city cemetery.

The deceased was 67 years of age and had lived in this community for the past 25 or more years. Her niece, Miss Eva Hubbard, of Montgomery City, was with her during her last illness. A son, Richard Hubbard, was killed by an accident while in the train service of the Alton—Slater Rustler.

MIKE RUCKER died Saturday morning at the home of his father, C. T. Rucker, in Blackwater, of consumption. He had been very low for some time and recently returned from a short trip which was made in the hope of improving his health. He was 33 years of age at the time of his death and unmarried. He was buried Sunday at Old Lamine. His parents, one sister and a brother survive him.—Nelson Record.

MISS ROSIE IRNE DOUGHTY

DROWNED IN WHITE RIVER

James Potter, of Nelson,
Victim of Water

James Potter, who was reared in the Nelson vicinity and son of Mrs. Anna Potter, was drowned in the White River near Bransom Monday while trying to cross it. The young man went to Kansas City a short time ago and from there to Bransom. A telegram came here Tuesday announcing his death but Charles Potter, who received it, did not know the young man and so the relatives did not learn of it till Wednesday, when his aunt, Mrs. Lum Graves, of South Lafayette received another message.

The remains passed through Marshall yesterday on their way to Nelson where the funeral occurred about noon. The young man was a good and industrious fellow and his death is much regretted.

Besides his mother, he is survived by the following brothers and sisters: J. T. in Kansas City, Mrs. J. R. Barron and Mrs. Thomas, of Nelson; B. F. Potter, of Drexel; Henry and Sam, of Nelson.

aged 16 years, 4 months and 7 days, died at the home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Elmore, on Thursday, April 4, after a brief illness.

The deceased was an orphan. Her parents died when she was quite young, and since that time she has made her home with her grand-parents.

She was very dear to them and they loved and cared for her as much as if she had been their own daughter.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Austin D. Wolfe, of the Presbyterian Church, were held at the residence Saturday afternoon at two o'clock and the remains interred in the Slater City Cemetery.—Slater Rustler.

MISS INEZ NAPIER died at the home of Jeff Allen, on North English Ave., Tuesday, aged about 20 years. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. John Mull, north of town. Miss Napier was a handsome young woman and her death in the prime of life is a sad one. Burial occurred at Shiloh cemetery Wednesday.

MRS. MAMIE BURNS ELLENWOOD, wife of O. D. Ellenwood, of Belpre, Ohio, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burns, of this place, died of Bright's disease at the home of her parents in Slater Wednesday morning, April 10th, 1912, at the age of twenty-six years seven months and twenty days.—Slater Rustler.

ALEXANDER CROSBY, col., better known as "Uncle Alex" died at his home north of town Thursday morning. He was about 80 years of age at the time of his death, having lived here on his farm, which was given him by the Jackson family, since the Civil War. This family had supported him for several years.

Uncle Alex was a generous kind hearted old negro and was respected by all who knew him for his kindness and good manners. His wife, "Aunt Harriett" survives him.—Nelson Record.

ROOSEVELT MEN
GET SEVERE JOLT

Congressional Convention
Ends in a Split

It isn't wise to do too much crowing, nor is it wise to count your chickens before they are hatched. The Saline county delegation to Sedalia Monday was in high spirits before the convention saying how easily they would "roll" the Taft boys, etc., etc. Why shouldn't they? There were forty-two delegates instructed for Roosevelt, leaving only a possible thirty-eight for Taft.

But the first test vote showed that there would be trouble in camp, as four Lafayette county delegates voted with the Taft boys. It caused a sensation and a stunning blow to the Roosevelt crowd. There was a hurried consultation, slates were broken and the bolters questioned. The Roosevelt voters were told that when the time came for a vote on the candidates to the Chicago convention the delegates would vote according to their instructions, but a second and harder jolt resulted—and a victory for the Taft crowd.

The following is the vote on the endorsement for the two candidates:

	Roosevelt	Taft
Benton	6
Howard		4
Hickory	4
Greene		21
Lafayette	10	3
Pettis		13
Polk	9
Saline	10
	39	41

Thus it will be seen that the three bolting Lafayette county delegates "beat the game." The men who bolted their instruction were M. C. James, postmaster at Higginville; W. H. P. Walkinhorst candidate for the postoffice at Concordia, and Frank Rigg, a painter of Higginville and a friend of Mr. James.

The Taft people elected E. E. McJinsey, POSTMASTER, of Springfield, chairman of the convention.

After this the Roosevelt delegates made no further efforts, but after the convention selected a contesting delegation—Ed Taubman, of Lexington and Mr. Cunningham, of Springfield, as delegates to Chicago and C. C. Kelly of Sedalia and T. C. Andrews of Sweet Springs, alternates. Also endorsed John W. Blackburn of Saline as elector.

Of course the Saline delegation was very much worked up over their defeat and said many things but the men who will regret their actions are the three men who played false to their friends and betrayed their confidence. Even the fair-minded Taft men regretted the act and realized the effect it would have in Lafayette. The Saline county delegation was as follows: F. W. Baker, Fred P. Klinge, J. J. Witt, R. P. Gwinn, C. E. Elmer, J. L. Pritchard, John Bishop, Geo. Brunkhorst, John H. McGuire, John W. Blackburn.

Everyone was present, a record not heard of before, and besides Len A. Murrell and S. P. Houston attended from here.

Will Locate in St. Joseph

J. P. Evans who has carried on a successful mule business here for twenty years with the exception of one year, has decided to locate in St. Joe, having closed out his business here. He expects to leave on Monday and will be accompanied by his sons, Charles and Forrest, who will be associated with him in the business there. His mother, Mrs. Lucy Evans, celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary Monday and they remained here to be present at the observance. We regret very much to lose such a splendid gentleman but wish him much success in his new venture.

Rosell Evers

Wm. Rosell, of Malta Bend, and Miss Cora Evers, of Sedalia, N. J. Evers, were married Monday at 3 p. m. at the Evers home by Rev. Wm. Leatherman, of Malta Bend. Mr. Rosell is postmaster at Malta Bend, while the bride is a popular teacher of our county. The M. E. Church choir and orchestra will give them a reception tonight. We join their numerous friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

LARGEST OCEAN
STEAMER SINKS

About Fifteen Hundred
Lives Lost

New York, April 15.—More than 1,500 persons, it is feared, sank to death early yesterday when the four hours after she crashed into an iceberg, the mammoth White Star Line steamer Titanic, bound from Liverpool to New York on her maiden voyage, went to the bottom of the New Foundland banks. Of the approximately 2,200 persons on board the ship, some of them of world-wide prominence, only 675 are known to have been saved.

The White Star office in New York, while keeping up hope to the last, freely admitted that there had been "horrible loss of life."

Accepting the early estimate as correct, the disaster is the greatest in the marine history of the world. Nearest approaching it in magnitude were the disasters to the steamer Atlantic, in 1873, when 547 lives were lost, and to La Bourgoyne, in 1898, with a fatality list of 571.

News of the sinking of the liner and the terrible loss of life in consequence came early last evening with all the greater shock because hope had been buoyed up all day by reports that the steamship although badly damaged, was not in a sinking condition and that all her passengers had been safely taken off.

Left on the surface, were lifeboats from the Titanic, and in them, were some 675 survivors of the disaster. These, according to the advices, the Carpathia picked up, and is now on her way with them to New York.

For the rest, the scene as the Carpathia came up, was one of desolation. All that remained of the $10,000,000 floating palace, on which nearly 1,000 passengers had been voyaging luxuriously to this side of the Atlantic, were some bits of wreckage. The biggest snuff in the world had gone down, snuffing out in her downward plunge, it appears, hundreds of human lives.

Marriage License

Edward H. Heinzel, Slater. Tillie Hagedorn, Slater. Frank Gorrell, Mt. Leonard. Edmund Kleen, Mt. Leonard. James H. Ordway, Marshall. Mary E. Hayob, Marshall. Roy B. Shepard, Slater. Cora Pearl Auer, Marshall.

Ordway-Hayob

James H. Ordway and Miss Mary Hayob were married at St. Peter's Catholic church by Father O'Neill Wednesday at 8:30 a. m. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hayob, east of town.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Ordway and is one of our most enterprising young farmers. The bride is not only handsome and accomplished but has the qualities and disposition of an ideal wife. We join in wishing them the best in life.

Around Town

In spite of our boast of a liberal and rich city, we learn that there was recently a death here from starvation. An old colored woman who lives in the eastern part of town and is seen with a wheelbarrow on our streets, picked up a colored girl somewhere to help her get out, but was unable to provide for her. While nearly starved to death the girl got hold of some yeast and ate it, dying as a result.

Why is it such a delight to see a young lady out buggy riding? It was supposed to be because of the scenery along the way, the exhilaration of fresh air, good company, etc. One of our little Rock friends says this has been partly disproven. He says on Good Friday, one of the boys decided to take his girl out but he found the roads too bad, so they simply sat in the buggy near the church at Little Rock. That's a whole lot more sensible than playing through the mud or jolting over rough roads. As far as scenery is concerned they'd never have seen it anyway with such interesting faces so near.

Church Notes

The girls of the Odell Ave. Presbyterian church conducted a Psalm Service Sunday evening. The program was a splendid one and of special interest of those attending.

Church services in Marshall will commence at 8 p. m. hereafter during the summer months.

Dr. A. H. Stephens preached at Mason Sunday and Dr. W. H. Black filled his pulpit here.

Captain Thomas, a colored slum worker from Kansas City, was here and at Slater the past week and preached at the jail Sunday.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind help and assistance during the sickness and death of our mother: Mrs. M. A. Jones.

Charles and Frank Jones.

A New Assistant

J. C. Lethgo, of Lamar, Mo., arrived Wednesday to assist us in the Republic. His first week will be a complete canvass of the county. The editor finds it impossible to get out as much as is necessary to keep in touch with our friends. Mr. Lethgo will start out with our big combination offer advertised this week. While he wants to be sociable, his main object is business, as he is under heavy expense, and we will appreciate it if you will hand him your renewal when he comes. You will at the same time be getting a special bargain.

Besides the receipt he gives you we will publish the names from week to week as extra guarantee that your renewal has reached us.

Gorrell-Kleen

Frank Gorrell and Miss Emma Kleen, of Mt. Leonard, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strong on West Boyd Wednesday. Rev. Clarence Hodge officiating. They were accompanied by Miss M. L. Hockensmith. Mr. Gorrell is a prominent young farmer while the bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Kleen. They are a most excellent young couple to whom we extend best wishes.

Among the Sick

Jimmie Erwin, nephew of Mrs. P. W. Harris, who has been sick for some time and who went to Las Animas, Colo., a few weeks ago is improving.

Dr. J. E. Harris was called to McCree Tuesday by the serious illness of his father-in-law, Jacob Maddox. Mrs. Harris has been there for some time waiting on her father.

J. W. Solomon, of South Salt Pond, was out Saturday after a month's illness, but is still somewhat under the weather.

Shepherd-Auer

Mr. Roy B. Shepherd, of Slater, and Miss Pearl Auer, sister of County Collector Joe Auer, were married at the Auer home on Capitol Hill Tuesday evening by Rev. D. C. Bolton. After the ceremony they left for an Eastern trip. Mr. Shepherd is a prominent young farmer and former neighbor of the bride, who is one of our most excellent young ladies.
